

PSYCHEDELIC THEATRE LIGHTS UP AT THE FRINGE

ACTUAL PHOTO!

Venture deep into the bowels of the Smirnoff Underbelly this August and you'll find yourself in a synaesthetic wonderland where robots sing in hypercolor and puppets snort cocaine...
Welcome to Cloud Cuckoo Land!

Cloud Cuckoo Land have been blending their surreal brand of total theatre with a car-boot mentality since 2002, flitting between Birmingham and Snowdonia looking for unusual ways of giving people a good night out. Now they're submerging fringe audiences in a hypnotic montage of puppetry, mime, projections, LED couture, knockabout comedy, dance, improvised interactive soundscapes and a jokeshop full of technical trickery.

Bleep 'N' Grind follows the adventures of Performamatic™ jukebox robot B44913M(d), as she takes on the Mighty Music Industry with her band of friendly freaks in tow. The result of a uniquely playful ensemble process, it features original live music by members of Birmingham's underground Moseley scene, including Pram's Matt Eaton (Domino Records).

Plunge into a night out for people bored of night clubs; a trip for people who aren't tripping;
a film for people who'd rather watch from the inside; a demented dream where your friends come along for the ride...
