Breakfast Bedlam, Live!

"Boy, do these guys love what they do. Comedy, absurdity and an impressive theatricality" Three Weeks*

"You are invited to the filming of Saturday morning kid's TV favourite, Breakfast Bedlam, live! Hosted by Dick and Donna this show gets you out of bed and wakes you up better than a bowl of Kelloggs' Cornflakes!" Except today is a very, very bad day for Dick, Donna and the rest of the Breakfast Bedlam, live! crew.

Kids' TV as it should be - tasteless, tacky and totally hilarious. Only this time it's for grown-ups. This comedy sketch-show peeks behind the façade of children's television then rips it to shreds. As inappropriate guests cause chaos, presenters go into overdrive and a highly-strung producer has a nervous breakdown; heads will roll and custard pies will fly! Can kids' TV ever be the same again?

A dynamic and energetic new comedy from the successful production company behind The Show in the 'Bro (Gilded Balloon 2005), this show offers a diverse mix of characters including drunken Ukrainian TV presenters, a neo-nazi boyband, sleazy agents, an overly enthusiastic show mascot and the sinister 'dark forces' of children's programming.

"This is the sort of production that the Fringe should be revelling in. Go see it" - Chortle*
