

PRESS RELEASE: Underbelly Live presents The Fence Collective

For three nights only the acclaimed Fence Collective will take their unique sound to Underbelly.

The Fence Collective have put Fife firmly on the world musical map having given birth to the likes of King Creosote, Lone Pigeon, James Yorkston and KT Tunstall. Expect outstanding twisted-folk musicianship and some very special guests - a different show each night!

Fence Collective is a collective of musicians based in Anstruther in the East Neuk of Fife affiliated to the Fence record label. The more established acts are often dubbed nu-folk by the press, although the collective also features practitioners of rock and electronica.

Leading acts include King Creosote, James Yorkston, Pip Dylan, Pictish Trail, Gummi Bako, The Red Well, Lone Pigeon, HMS Ginafore and MC Quake. KT Tunstall and The Beta Band have also been involved. (Wikipedia)
