

5th BIRTHDAY FOR FRINGE COMEDY CLUB

THE FREE BEER SHOW STAGGERS BACK TO THE FESTIVAL

This summer The Free Beer Show comedy club is celebrating its 5th anniversary with a bigger, better show at the new Underbelly promoted Cow Barn venue (aka Reid Hall).

With sell-out shows every year The Free Beer Show's success has come from its beautifully simple concept. What more could you want than 4 of the best Fringe comedians and a free drink?

Despite its continuing commercial success the club had a pretty humble start, as the first club run by a pair of 18 year old, novice promoters. Arriving at the 2002 Fringe with virtually no industry contacts Paddy Luscombe & Josh Sasanow quickly set about gathering together a fine selection of name acts. With regular sets from Reginald D Hunter, Lucy Porter & the Men in Coats it took only 2 weeks to have their capacity tripled after frequent sell-outs and a write up in The Times cookery section.

Be sure not to miss the return of a true Fringe institution.
